From DPH&FW Lr.No.5198/E1B/2011, dated: 17.08.2012

O R D E R:

In the letter read above, the DPH&FW has submitted the proposals for inclusion in DCS/CAS for the panel year 2011-2012 for promotion to the post of Civil Surgeon (Hospital Administration).

2. The Screening Committee met on 31.08.2012 and recommended the names of DCS/CAS for inclusion in the panel of promotion for the category of CS (HA) for the panel year 2011-2012.

3. The A.P. Health and Family Welfare Service Rules prescribe that one must (i) minimum service of 3 years in the category of Dy.CS/CAS; (ii) possess PG Degree i.e., Master of Hospital Administration with an experience of not less than 5 years after obtaining Master of Hospital Administration as Resident Medical Officer in a teaching hospital in the M&H Department; in case suitable candidates with the qualifications specified above are not available, candidate with Diploma in Hospital Administration qualification with an experience of not less than 9 years after obtaining the Diploma in Hospital Administration as RMO in a teaching hospital in the M&H Department and (iii) PG Degree in M.Phil (Hospital & Health System Management) of BITS, Pilani is recognized as equivalent to PG Degree in Hospital Administration along with other universities for promotion to the post of Civil Surgeon (Hospital Administration). Out of 12 names of Dy.CS/CAS in the seniority list; Sl.No.5 only is having the required qualification and eligible for promotion and other are not having required eligibility and are not eligible for promotion; and that, charges are pending against the Dy.CS at Sl.No.3 and no charges are pending against the remaining Dy.CS/CAS in the seniority list;

4. Dr. G.Vidyavathi, (Sl.No.1), Dr.C.Narayana Reddy, (Sl.No.2) and Dr.S.Prameela (Sl.No.4) in the seniority list have not completed 5 years of service as Resident Medical Officer after acquiring Master Degree in Hospital Administration, Dr.V.Srinivas (Sl.No.3) acquired Master Degree in 2005, but he chosen to work on deputation to Aarogyasri Health Care Trust and therefore he is not having the required service of 5 years as Resident Medical Officer and the Committee decided that they are not eligible for promotion.
